Joan Stevens Dies; Kin of Ex-Secretary

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (Spl.)
Joan Peters Stevens, 31, died yesterday at the home of her parents in South Plainfield, N. J., after a long illness. She was the daughter of Dorothy Whitney Stevens and Robert Ten Broeck Stevens, who was Secretary of the Army during the Army-McCarthy hearing.

Miss Stevens was graduated from the Foxcroft School, Middleburg, Va., in 1947 and from Bennett Junior College, Millbrook, N. Y., in 1949. She lived in Washington for a number of years where she worked for the Central Intelligence Agency and later for Pan American World Airways, Inc. She has been at home in South Plainfield since September, 1959.

In addition to her parents Miss Stevens is survived by her grandmothers, Mrs. John P. Stevens of South Plainfield and Mrs. Clarence E. Whitney of Hartford, Conn., and by four brothers, Robert T. Stevens Jr., of Leesburg, Va., Whitney of New York, William G. of Charlotte, N. C., and Thomas E. of South Plainfield.
